

Planning a get-together or a celebration?

Whether it's an intimate family gathering or a full-scale party, we have a room to suit your needs.

Just a few steps from John's Bridge at the heart of the city; the Home Rule Club offers a variety of options for your party or event.

- The Courtyard Beer Garden – don't let the weather deter you! The Courtyard Beer Garden offers a heated outdoor space where you can enjoy a drink in comfort protected from the elements. Stage, lighting and sound to keep the party going can also be arranged.

- The Rince Fada Bar – our newly opened bar is an intimate space with a unique atmosphere, perfect to set the mood for a lively and enjoyable evening. Having its own private bar adjacent to the Courtyard, it is a perfect place to bring people together!

- The Home Rule Bar – The Club dates from 1894, and we have 125 years of experience of welcoming members and visitors alike to enjoy the warm fireside atmosphere of our bar. The Club hosts our famous Open House evenings of music, song and entertainment, a monthly traditional music session, and live music on Saturdays. It is also the perfect spot for a quiet drink. The bar offers pool and darts, and sporting events can be enjoyed of the big screen in the TV area. A warm welcome awaits members and visitors alike!
- Members can also avail of our two full-size snooker tables
